Chinatown Business Improvement District (BID) Board Nomination

The Chinatown District Management Association (aka Chinatown BID) is soliciting qualified applicants to serve on our Board of Directors. Officially recognized by the City of New York in 2012, the Chinatown BID works with residents, business owners and community groups to foster economic development in Chinatown while improving the quality of life and ensuring the vitality of one of New York's most diverse and dynamic historic neighborhoods. We invite qualified applicants and nominees who have demonstrated support, commitment, and passion for the mission of the Chinatown BID to provide leadership to help accomplish our goals and programs.

Selection Criteria:

1. Individuals must demonstrate past – or future planned – support of the Chinatown BID's mission, programs, and goals.

2. Individuals must be ready, willing and able to make contributions and leverage personal and professional relationships and resources to achieve the BID's mission and assist in its effective governance.

3. Individuals must be ready, willing and able to actively serve on the Board and its committees and attend its official functions.

4. Individuals have demonstrated leadership abilities and communication skills.

If you are interested or know of someone that is interested for nomination to the board, please submit the following application.
